Please review this document as you prepare your final submission, and follow the steps below after you have prepared your final paper.

Step 1: From the "Overview" screen in Conftool, please select "Your Submissions".

Step 2: You should see the details of your submitted contribution. Below your contribution details is the panel your paper has been assigned to within the conference program. Please note that the conference agenda is a preliminary draft and subject to change.

Please click "Upload Contribution" to the right of the screen.

Step 3: At the bottom of the page, please click "Browse" and choose your paper. Note that even though the Conftool website can accept a variety of file formatd, we request that you submit PDF files only.

Finally, click "Upload File(s)". Once uploaded, you will see a confirmation on the next screen. You will also receive a confirmation email. Please note that you can continue to upload revised versions of your contribution to Conftool up until 11:59 PM on January 31, 2015 (Eastern Standard Time).

Details
	Authors interested in presenting at the conference are requested to submit an initial 800 to 1,500 word abstract before December 31st 2014. If accepted, the final paper should be between 6,000 and 12,000 words.
	Please note that the mandatory fields include a short 200 words abstract that will be published on the conference book should the paper be accepted for presentation.
	Complete all fields marked with an asterisk (*) and upload your 800 to 1500 word abstract for review on the second page. As the review will be blind, the file should contain ONLY the text of the abstract with no names or other identifying details. You have the option of uploading revised versions of your abstract to the server at any time before the abstract submission deadline.
	Your submission will be completed only when the file with the 800 to 1500 word abstract will be uploaded on the second page of the submission form.
	An auto-generated email from ConfTool indicating the abstract has been received will confirm a successful submission
	The maximum file size allowed is 30 megabytes.
