

World Bank Group Youth Summit 2014
The Need for Open and Responsive Governments

International Finance Corporation Auditorium
 2121 Pennsylvania Ave NW
 Washington, DC 20433

October 7, 2014

AGENDA

*Please note not all speakers are confirmed

8:00 – 9:00	Check-in/ Registration A light breakfast will be made available outside the IFC Auditorium.
9:00 – 9:45 IFC Auditorium	Opening Remarks Nicholas Bian, Chair, Youth Summit 2014 Ministerial Roundtable H.E. Erion Veliaj, Minister for Social Welfare and Youth, Albania H.E. Ershad Ahmadi, Deputy Minister for Foreign Affairs, Afghanistan* Moderated by Nicholas Bian, Chair, Youth Summit 2014
9:45 – 11:15 IFC Auditorium	Plenary Session I Promoting and enabling youth, youth ideas, and youth movements in ensuring open and responsive governments Ahmad Alhendawi, U.N. Envoy for Youth Edith Jibunoh, Adviser, World Bank Group Nigel Chapman, President and CEO, Plan International Frank Vogl, Co-Founder, Transparency International Moderated by Mario Marcel, Senior Director, Governance, World Bank Group
11:15-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-13:00 IFC Auditorium	Plenary Session II The Role of Youth in Inclusive Governance What do inclusive governance processes look like from the perspective of young people? Hear from young change makers and share successes (and challenges) in collaborative policymaking. Santosh Acharya, Youth Activist, Restless Development Sara Moore, Youth Advisor, Plan International Raphael Obonyo, The Youth Congress of Kenya Nur Laiq, Former Social Media Chief Content Officer, Indian National Congress Party

	Moderated by Sandra Moscoso, Governance, World Bank Group
13:00-14:00	Lunch
Concurrent Workshops are consistent with the sub-themes of transparency, accountability and collaboration
14:00-15:15	Concurrent Workshops – Session I “Youth Contribution to Government Transparency and Accountability” hosted by the Asian Development Bank & the Partnership for Transparency Fund (Room: L109) “Towards a Global Youth-led Monitoring and Accountability Framework: new approaches to governance and accountability in a post-2015 world” hosted by Restless Development & the United Nations Development Programme (Room: L101) “#OpenGovNow: Innovations on gathering citizen feedback” hosted by the World Bank Group Governance Practice (Room: L103) “Methods for Measuring Governance in Africa and Assessing Areas for Improvement” hosted by the Mo Ibrahim Foundation & the WBG/IMF Young African Society (IFC Auditorium)
15:15-15:30	Coffee Break
15:30-16:45	Concurrent Workshops – Session II “Access to Information: Empowering Youth to Improve their communities” hosted by the Carter Center (Room: L103) “(Young People as Game Changers) Helping Governments Listen and Respond to Young People’s Voices through Social Accountability” hosted by Global Partnership for Social Accountability & the Young Americas Business Trust (Room: 11P 142) “The Power of Youth Advocacy” hosted by Plan International (Room: L101) “Youth Engagement and E-Governance Tools” hosted by the International Republican Institute & Generation Democracy (Room: L109)
16:45-17:30	Closing Remarks and Ceremony Jim Yong Kim, President, World Bank Group
18:00-20:00	Networking Reception Reception will be located at the OpenGov Hub (1110 Vermont Avenue NW, Suite 500) and hosted by Y2Y. There is a 200 person limit, so it will be first come, first serve.