Revealed Preference for Open Defecation: Evidence from a new survey in rural north India (longer working paper)

(In U.P., Bihar, M.P., Rajasthan, Haryana)

- "More than half of people in households which own a government latrine defecate in the open."
- "Open defecation would be at least as good for child health as latrine use by everyone in the village."
- "Policy-makers in India must lead a large scale campaign to promote latrine use."
