

Measuring for Success

The role of assessment in achieving learning goals

4th READ Global Conference | May 12–14 2014 | St. Petersburg | Russian Federation

Site Visits May 14, 2014

Site Visit Organizers

Daria Ovcharova (Center for International Cooperation in Education Development),
Oleg Prikot and Rimma Labazanova
(Higher School of Economics)

Site #1. Secondary School

Second Gymnasium of St. Petersburg

www.2spbg.ru/2spbg\_eng.php

Recognized as one of the top 500 schools in Russia, this school is also a resource center of the Educational Committee of St. Petersburg in the area of education quality assessment.

Site #2. Primary School

School #550 of the Central District of St. Petersburg

portal.ort.spb.ru

One of the most advanced schools in St. Petersburg in the area of information technology, with a strong focus on foreign languages, this school has a unique approach to education quality assessment and education management.

Site #3. Center for Education Quality Assessment

Regional Center for Education Quality Assessment and Digital Technologies

rcokoit.ru

Core activities of this highly-regarded regional center include education quality assessment, establishment of a regional information space on the education system, and education for professionals in the areas of education quality assessment and education information.

Site #4. Institution for Professional Development

The Academy of Professional Development in the Sphere of Education

www.spbappo.ru

Winner of an All-Russia contest for institutions for education professional development, the Academy is a member of the Association of UNESCO schools and the main coordination center for further professional education in the North-Western region of Russia.