Note: Countries choose whether they are Part I or Part II based primarily on economic standing. Part I countries are almost all donors to the International Development Association and pay their contributions in freely convertible currency. Part II countries may be donors, and are entitled to pay most of their contributions in local currency. For more information, and for Statement of Voting Power, and Subscriptions and Contributions of IDA Members, see The World Bank Annual Report 2001: Volume 2, Financial Statements and Appendixes.
