World Bank Country Offices and Borrower Eligibility

The World Bank today operates out of nearly 100 offices worldwide. Increased presence in client countries is helping the Bank better understand, work more closely with, and provide faster service to clients. Three-fourths of outstanding loans are managed by country directors located away from the Bank's Washington, DC, headquarters. About 2,500 staff are based in country offices, representing an increase of 52 percent over five years ago.
