

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND SCIENCE OF THE REPUBLIC OF TAJIKISTAN

Kyrgyzstan, Bishkek, June 22 – 23, 2015

First task: development and introduction of new subject standards following competencies-based approach to education

Issues for the conference:

- In which country have subject standards and competencies-based educational programs been developed?
- Which specific examples of the structure, content and strategy for introduction of subject standards and competencies-based educational programs can be provided?
- How the life skills are integrated in your subject standards and competencies-based educational programs, including social and emotional skills?

Second task: development and introduction of grading system with consideration of competencies-based approach to education

Issues for the conference:

- What is the international experience in knowledge assessment following the competencies-based approach to education?
- What strategies are used to obtain results of achievements of students for introduction of new approach to the knowledge assessment system with consideration of competencies-based approach to education?
- Training on new knowledge assessment methods for teachers?

Thank you!