

SESSION 3

Examinations: Ensuring Quality

READ Regional Workshop

Astana, Kazakhstan
September 19, 2012

Assessment types/purposes

- Classroom assessment

- For improving teaching and learning

- Examinations

- For making high-stakes decisions about individual students

- Large-scale assessment

- For determining system learning levels and related factors

Figure 1. Trend in fourth-grade NAEP reading average scores

Session objectives

- Participants can
 - anticipate and recognize inappropriate behavior in different examination contexts
 - identify strategies to prevent inappropriate behavior in examinations

Activity 1: Identifying inappropriate behavior and malpractice

- At your table, discuss the types of inappropriate behavior or malpractice for each stakeholder group
- Complete the sheet, providing at least two examples for each stakeholder group
- Select one team member to share the outcomes of your discussion with the room

Activity 2: Combating inappropriate behavior and malpractice

- At your table, discuss how the inappropriate behavior or malpractice you identified in Activity 1 could be prevented
- Complete the Activity 2 sheet, indicating at least two preventative mechanisms
- Select one team member to share the outcomes of your discussion with the room

Key lessons

Key lessons

- Inappropriate behavior comes in various forms and can be committed by a variety of stakeholders
- Inappropriate behavior can take place before, during, and after the administration of the examination
- It is important to have institutionalized mechanisms to prevent inappropriate behavior