

HOW DID WE GET HERE?
WHERE DO WE GO?
OVERVIEW OF THE REGIONAL CONCEPT
DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

FARZONA MUKHITDINOVA
OPERATIONS ANALYST
AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT

WHAT WAS THE FIRST FORUM ABOUT?

INITIAL FORUM SUGGESTIONS – EXPLORING OPPORTUNITIES

Help improve understanding of climate resilient development for key country level decision-makers

Reach out to other ministries beyond hydromet, including finance, social development, civil protection, as well as research and knowledge institutions.

Facilitate funding for national and regional level strategic planning for better collaboration on climate change to enhance resilience in Central Asia

Organize annual Forum, for continued dialogue on CC in the region

FROM THE 1ST FORUM TO THE 2ND: RESULTS

2nd Central Asia Knowledge Forum: Moving Toward Resiliency
- YOU decide where we go from here

National Consultations on the draft Regional Framework Note for the Climate Change Resiliency Program

First meeting of the Technical Working Group in Almaty

Stakeholders consultations on regional collaboration for better climate change resiliency

WAY TO GO: EXPECTATIONS OF THE FORUM

Agree on the overarching concept of the program and its outline - Monday

Develop the outline of concept note - Wednesday

Agree on concept note and main questions to be answered through Phase I - Thursday

Agree on the next steps to take preparation of the program forward - Friday

FOCUS OF THE PRE-FORUM DAY

A.

- Discuss outcomes of the National Consultations held in CA countries and priorities identified in the process

B.

- Agree on the main set of regional level priorities based on the criteria developed;

C.

- Brainstorm potential structure of the program development: identify main questions to be answered during the analytical phase

D.

- Identify key messages (objectives, principles, broad outline) for high level discussions on Thursday on interest in participation in the program

Agree on logistical arrangements for preparation of the briefing documents for Thursday

WISH ALL OF US
PRODUCTIVE WORK!!!