

Ladies and Gentlemen,

On the occasion of the 10th Anniversary of the 2004 EU Enlargement, the Austrian Federal Ministry for Europe, Integration and Foreign Affairs (BMEIA), the Austrian Federation of Industries (IV), the Institute for Human Sciences (IWM), the Oesterreichische Nationalbank (OeNB) and The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw) cordially welcome you at the

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

TEN YEARS AFTER THE 2004 EU ENLARGEMENT: ACHIEVEMENTS AND NEXT STEPS

Vienna, April 24-25, 2014

The conference will celebrate the 10th anniversary of the accession of ten Central, Eastern and Southeastern European countries to the European Union. It will reflect on achievements and lessons learned and discuss possible future political and economic developments in Europe:

- Lessons Learned from Past Enlargements: Achievements and Challenges Ahead
- The Economic Crisis and How to Resuscitate Convergence in Europe
- The Conduct of Macroeconomic Policy Pre- and Post-Accession
- Towards Stability in the Western Balkans
- Overcoming New Chasms in the EU's Neighbourhood
- European Integration and Nationalism: Two Steps Forward, One Step Back
- A Century of European Disintegration and Integration: 1914–2014

Please find enclosed a detailed conference program and further practical information.

With best regards,

BMEIA, IV, IWM, OeNB, wiiw
