Highlights

- ▶ The low overall CPIA score is primarily attributed to protracted fragility and limited capacity.
- ▶ The country lags behind its peers in all CPIA clusters, particularly in social inclusion and governance, highlighting the need for substantial technical assistance to strengthen its policy and institutional framework.
- ▶ The government has significantly increased spending on the social sector, including on education, health, and social protection.
- ▶ Ambitious forest policy requires prioritization for improved effectiveness. Strengthening enforcement mechanisms and improving management practices are essential for promoting sustainable development in the forestry sector.
