The country improved gender equality and built human resources in efforts to enhance governance, particularly in property rights and rule-based governance, as well as addressing transparency, accountability, and corruption issues, are essential for improving overall performance.

Efforts are needed for financial sector development, particularly in ensuring financial stability and continued adherence to international accounting and reporting practices.

Efforts to enhance governance, particularly in property rights and rule-based governance, as well as addressing transparency, accountability, and corruption issues, are essential for improving overall performance.

The authorities ceased the provision of US dollars for fuel imports and increased the statutory reserves ratio for deposits in foreign currency, which supported recovery of external reserves, removed excess liquidity, and helped to restrain inflationary pressures.

The country improved gender equality and built human resources in health and education.

Definitions:
- CPIA: Country Policy and Institutional Assessment
- IDA: International Development Association, the arm of the World Bank Group that provides credits to the poorest countries
- SSA: Sub-Saharan Africa
- Poverty data are based on the MFMMod Database, Macro-Poverty Outlook, World Bank, spring 2024. Poverty data are expressed in 2017 purchasing power parity.
- The cutoff date for the World Development Indicators database is July 2024.